

Weekly Citizen

ALBUQUERQUE, OCT. 10, 1896.

From Friday's Daily.

Mrs. E. H. Roth, who was on a visit to a sister at El Paso, returned to the city last night.

Rev. Howard, accompanied by his wife and children, returned to the city from the north this morning.

Mrs. W. W. Butler, wife of the south First-street barber, is reported improved from her recent serious illness.

K. A. Morris, general merchant of Cuba, up in the northwestern section of Bernalillo County, is here buying goods.

Mrs. E. C. Weidner and Miss Anna Werner, with their friend, Miss Sophie Jennings, are at Gallup visiting friends.

A. W. Lewis, of Cincinnati, Ohio, came in from El Paso last night. The visitor is a friend of A. D. Whitson, the music dealer.

Misses Ethel, Winslow and Taylor, with Miss Paxton, Laddie and Mr. Alger, will leave to-morrow morning for the Acme Valleys.

Mrs. H. C. House, of Kansas City, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Stevens, has been visiting her parents, who remain for several weeks.

Hon. Neil H. Field, who was in the Allertonian during his vacation, was interested, turned to the city last night.

C. H. Hall, the newspaper merchant, returned from a business trip to the town west last night. He reports a good crowd coming to the "carnival" sports.

H. W. Johnson, deputy United States marshal, and wife, Sue, special agent on the Mexican faculty, who were out after their robes, returned to the city from the southwest night.

W. H. Estes, cowboy, of the popular herd, was here yesterday and last night and last night. He arrived last night from Oklahoma City and intends to remain until he will return with the cattle to the south west Saturday.

John Barnes, owner of the popular barn, was here yesterday and last night and last night. He arrived last night from Oklahoma City and intends to remain until he will return with the cattle to the south west Saturday.

Charles Barnes and Harry F. Ward, two well-known cattle breeders, left for St. Louis, Mo., on the 18th. In the south last night and expected at Sturges, Kansas. They are listed in the directory of the association of sports.

Mrs. May L. Ward, daughter of Rev. John L. Ward, of the First Methodist church, arrived Saturday and will remain for the week. The guest of honor had just come from the south.

Franklin B. Smith, with both room and entrance, is here to meet the car.

Franklin is a member of the International Association, which has gone abroad to the carnival last year to give an exhibition of the facilities of the "Carnival of Sports."

Franklin is here to meet the car.

The "Carnival of Sports" is an attraction and the best show in the country, and the members of the International Association are invited to the opening.

Franklin is here to meet the car.

The "Carnival of Sports" is an attraction and the best show in the country, and the members of the International Association are invited to the opening.

Franklin is here to meet the car.

Franklin is here to meet the car.